Transit Capital Revenue Estimation Study

March 8, 2017

PRESENTATION OVERVIEW

- Objectives
- Principles for Selecting Revenue Sources
- Evaluation and Estimation Methods
- Evaluation and Estimation of Revenue Sources
  - Statewide Sources
  - Northern Virginia Sources

OBJECTIVES

- Gather feedback on principles for selecting revenue sources

- Identify potential revenue sources that could fill the funding gap estimated for DRPT's transit capital spending
  - Gather feedback on the evaluation of potential revenue sources
  - Share estimation of potential revenue sources

PRINCIPLES FOR SELECTING REVENUE SOURCES

- 1. Pursue a package of multiple revenue sources
  - Spread lower rate increases across multiple sources so no single source is overburdened

- 2. Consider both statewide and regional sources
  - Use regional funds to - in part - address Northern Virginia transit funding needs

- 3. Consider transit capital funding within context of other transportation revenue needs
  - Dedicating new funding to transit capital makes a lower rate increase possible
  - Linking to other transportation funding needs may facilitate approval

- 4. Focus on revenue sources for which a rate increase is most feasible
  - Consider duration since most recent increase
  - Consider sources with comparatively low rates

METHODS – REVENUE EVALUATION

→ Reviewed 4 categories of revenue sources:

- Existing revenue sources used to fund transit capital projects in Virginia
  - Statewide
  - Northern Virginia
- Revenue sources used in Virginia to fund other transportation capital projects, excluding transit, which could be partially reallocated or be increased for transit
- Revenue sources currently used in Virginia to fund other needs (e.g. Grantor's tax)
- Revenue sources not currently used in Virginia (e.g. Internet Sales Tax)

→ Promising revenue sources are presented with detailed information and evaluation to facilitate review, with ratings attributed for each criterion:

- = High
- ◐ = Medium
- = Low
